PART A: The Format

1. Competition Qualification and Format

a. Confirmation of Qualifying Kapa Haka for the National Festival

i. Rohe and Kapa Haka will follow the Rules relating to eligibility and qualifying for the Te Matatini National Kapa Haka Festival (National Festival).

b. Pool Competition (Four (4) Pools)

i. Kapa Haka will compete across four (4) pools; Te Ihu, Te Haumi, Te Kei, and Te Awa. Kapa Haka will be spread equally across the four (4) pools. Pools will be lateral across the four (4) days of the National Competition as outlined in 2a iv.

ii. Each Kapa Haka will perform in the Pool Competition in order according to the Competition Draw.

iii. The three (3) Kapa Haka from each pool with the four (4) highest Aggregate marks in Ngā Wāhanga Me Mātua Tutuki – Compulsory Disciplines will compete in Te Matangirua.

iv. In the event of equal placings in a Pool, the Kapa Haka that advances to Te Matangirua will be the Kapa Haka that has the highest marks across the total sum of all aggregate disciplines. (4 Kaiwhiriwhiri x 7 disciplines)

v. If there are still equal placings after this calculation, the Kapa Haka with the highest marks in the following disciplines will proceed to Te Matangirua:

1. Te Kairangi o te reo – (if there are still equal placings, then 2 will apply)
2. Waiata ā-ringā (if there are still equal placings, then 3 will apply)
3. Whakaeke (if there are still equal placings, then 4 will apply)
4. Whakawātea (if there are still equal placings, then 5 will apply)
5. Mōteatea (if there are still equal placings, then 6 will apply)
6. Poi (if there are still equal placings, then 7 will apply)
7. Haka – (if there are still equal placings, these Kapa Haka will advance to Te Matangirua)

c. Te Matangirua

i. Te Matangirua is a new competition where Kapa Haka competing will be judged afresh to select Te Toa Whakaihuwaka – Overall Aggregate Winner.

ii. Twelve (12) Kapa Haka will compete in Te Matangirua.

iii. In the event of equal placings in Te Matangirua, the Kapa Haka that has the highest marks across the total sum of all aggregate disciplines. (4 Kaiwhiriwhiri x 7 disciplines) will determine Te Toa Whakaihuwaka.

iv. If there are still equal placings after this calculation in Te Matangirua, those Kapa Haka will remain equal, Te Toa Whakaihuwaka.

d. To determine the final placings for the following Te Matatini National Festival, Kapa Haka will be ranked in order of Te Matangirua placings.

e. If there are still equal placings in Te Matangirua the highest marks across the total sum of all aggregate disciplines. (4 Kaiwhiriwhiri x 7 disciplines) will determine the rankings.

Competition Prize-giving

- i. All taonga will be announced and presented after Te Matangirua at the Competition Prize-giving.
- ii. All taonga winners are determined from the Pool Competition.
- iii. In the event of equal placings in a discipline, the Kapa Haka that receives a perfect score (4 x 100s) will be determined the winner and will precede the Olympic system. If there is still a draw, those Kapa Haka are equal.
- iv. Participation certificates will be provided to all Kapa Haka during the Prize-giving.
- v. Te Toa Whakaihuwaka – Overall Aggregate Winner will be announced at the end of the Competition Prize-giving.

2. Competition Draws

a. Competition Draw – Pool Competition (Four (4) Pools)

i. Te Matatini National Office will conduct a competition draw following the completion of all Regional Kapa Haka competitions.

ii. The Finalists from the previous National Festival will be put into a seeded draw. If any Finalists from the previous National Festival do not qualify for the National Festival, then the next highest placed Kapa Haka from previous National Festival will move into the Finalists seeded draw.

iii. Finalists seeded draw for the National Festival is as follows:

Te Matangirua 1 st place Aggregate overall winner	Te Matangirua 2 nd place Aggregate overall winner	Te Matangirua 3 rd place Aggregate overall winner	Te Matangirua 4 th place Aggregate overall winner
